A WELL-DESIGNED AMAGANSETT PORCH

They're perfect for entertaining guests, and one of the best ways to increase your home's curb appeal. Porches never fail to add a dose of luxury to a home. If you're lucky enough to have this outdoor space, you probably haven't given it the attention it deserves. Regardless of your design aesthetic, this collection of 40 charming porch decorating ideas are all the inspiration you need to while away the sunny season in style.

AN EAST HAMPTON PORCH

An East Hampton porch by John Kureck and Doug Jones is fit for spending evenings outdoors. A white rocking chair and rustic wire-frame ceiling light fixture add character to the space.

A CHARMING PALM BEACH PORCH

The porch of a Palm Beach home designed by Tom Scheerer is a lesson in decorating with patterns. The rattan sofa and armchairs are from Harbinger, the slipper chairs are by Walters, the porcelain stool is by Tucker Robbins, and the cocktail table is custom. A sconce by Scheerer for the Urban Electric Co. hangs between staghorn ferns on plaques. The ceiling is paneled in pecky cypress.

A LAKE TAHOE RETREAT

Tucked away in the Sierra Nevada Mountains is a laid-back retreat designed by Palmer Weiss. The screened-in porch exudes an old-world aesthetic, thanks to a custom table from the LaLune Collection, a sofa and pillows by Lee Industries that are covered in a Claremont fabric, and a 1950's oushak rug.

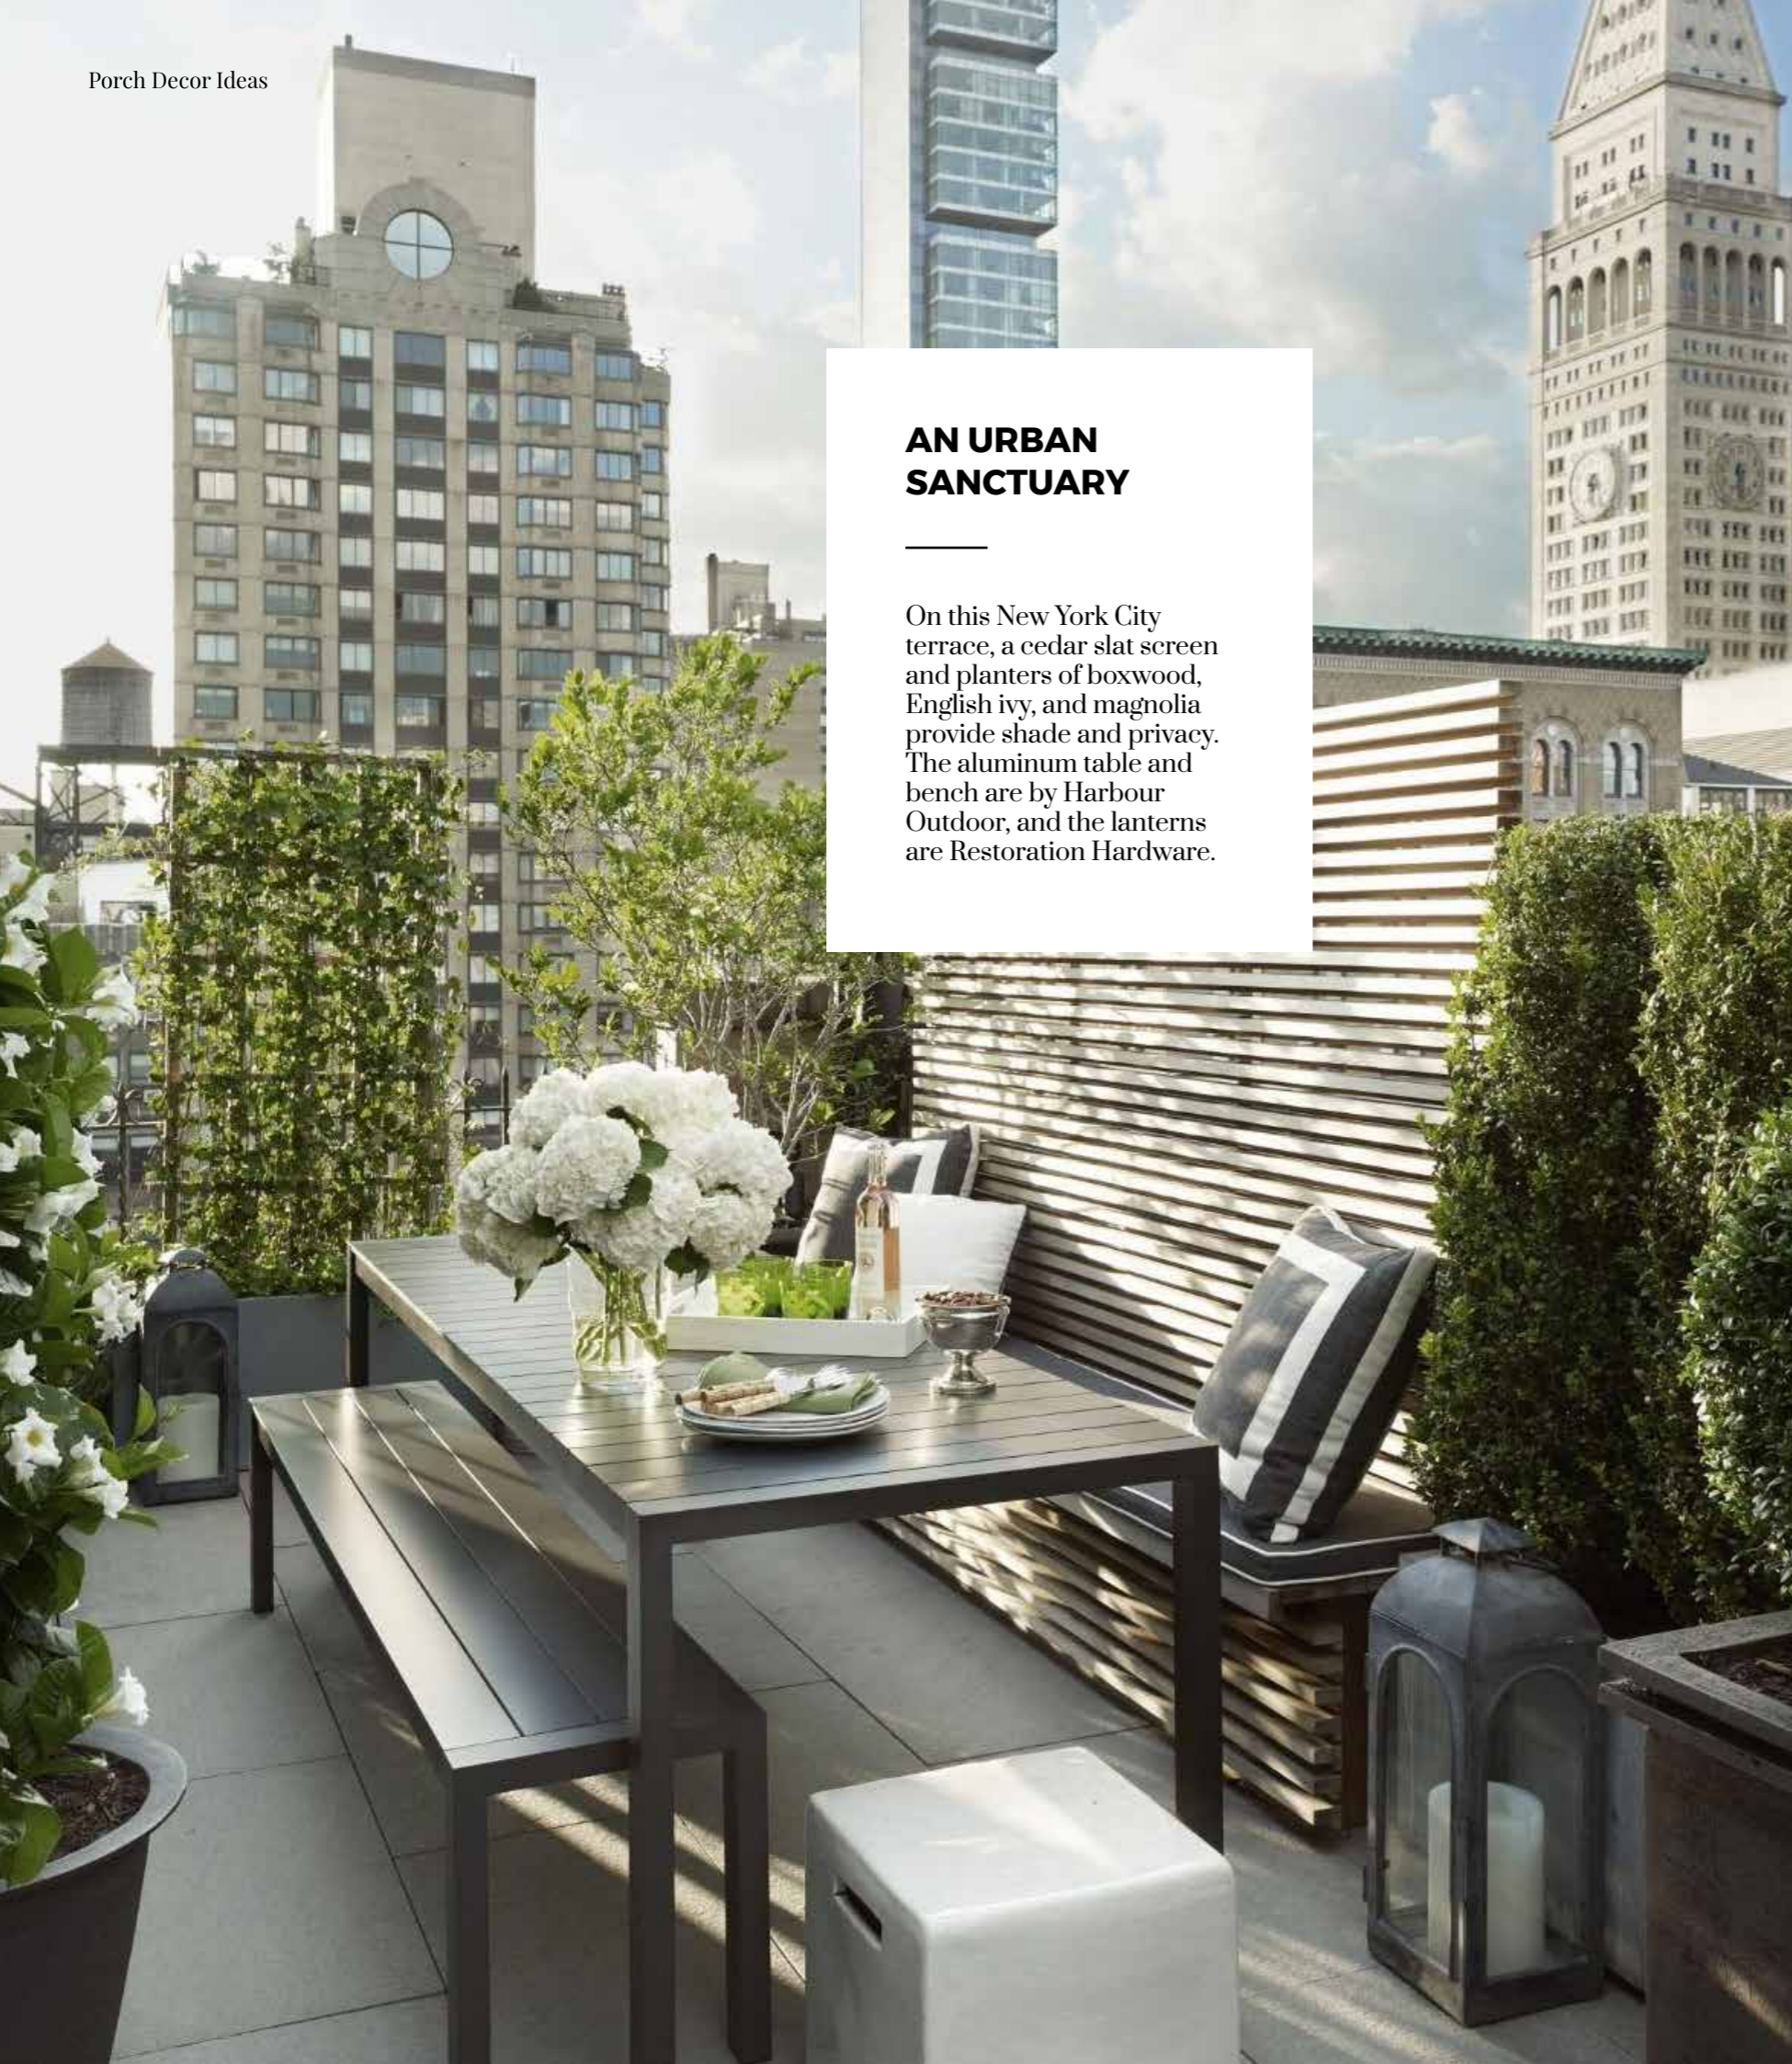

A HAMPTONS FARMHOUSE PORCH

Designer Steven Gambrel was enlisted to refresh a Bridgehampton farmhouse, including a screened-in porch that was added during the remodel. The space boasts cozy areas for lounging and dining. And its pale wood furnishings, lantern lights, and stone flooring play up its “old Hamptons” vibe.

A STYLISH AND SHADY PATIO

The built-in stucco sectional in the outdoor lounge of designer Kathryn M. Ireland’s Santa Monica home is topped with cushions in a custom Kathryn M. Ireland outdoor fabric. The table is from her French Finds collection, and the chairs are by Consort.

AN URBAN SANCTUARY

On this New York City terrace, a cedar slat screen and planters of boxwood, English ivy, and magnolia provide shade and privacy. The aluminum table and bench are by Harbour Outdoor, and the lanterns are Restoration Hardware.

DINING AL FRESCO

In the open-air dining room of Rela and Don Gleason's home in San Miguel de Allende, Mexico, a table and armoire designed by Rela and made by local artisans work as statement pieces. The Wisteria chairs have custom leather slipcovers, and the goatskin-and-iron ceiling fixture was inspired by lighting at the Leon Trotsky museum in Mexico City.

A SECLUDED BEACHSIDE PORCH

A shaded patio at this home in Alys Beach, Florida, features a custom-made seating area with cushions encased in a dark gray Perennials fabric. The teak lounge chairs are by Henry Hall Designs and the Spanish hanging lanterns were found in Belgium.

TRELLIS-TOPPED OUTDOOR DINING

Actress Reese Witherspoon's secluded seven-acre family retreat in Ojai, California, features a vine-surrounded terrace with a wood-topped dining table, vintage iron and wicker chairs, and an antique lantern.

AN ELEGANT OUTDOOR AREA

On the arched back porch of this traditional stone house in Bel Air, the custom-made iron chairs and a white-oak table form an elegant dining area. The stone console is from Jean de Merry, the lanterns are by Charles Edwards, and the floor is tiled with limestone and terracotta.

A COZY COCKTAIL SPACE

The covered patio of this Massachusetts home is transformed into a cozy cocktail area, courtesy of the cocktail table, chairs and sectional by Munder-Skiles. The cushions are covered in a Perennials fabric.

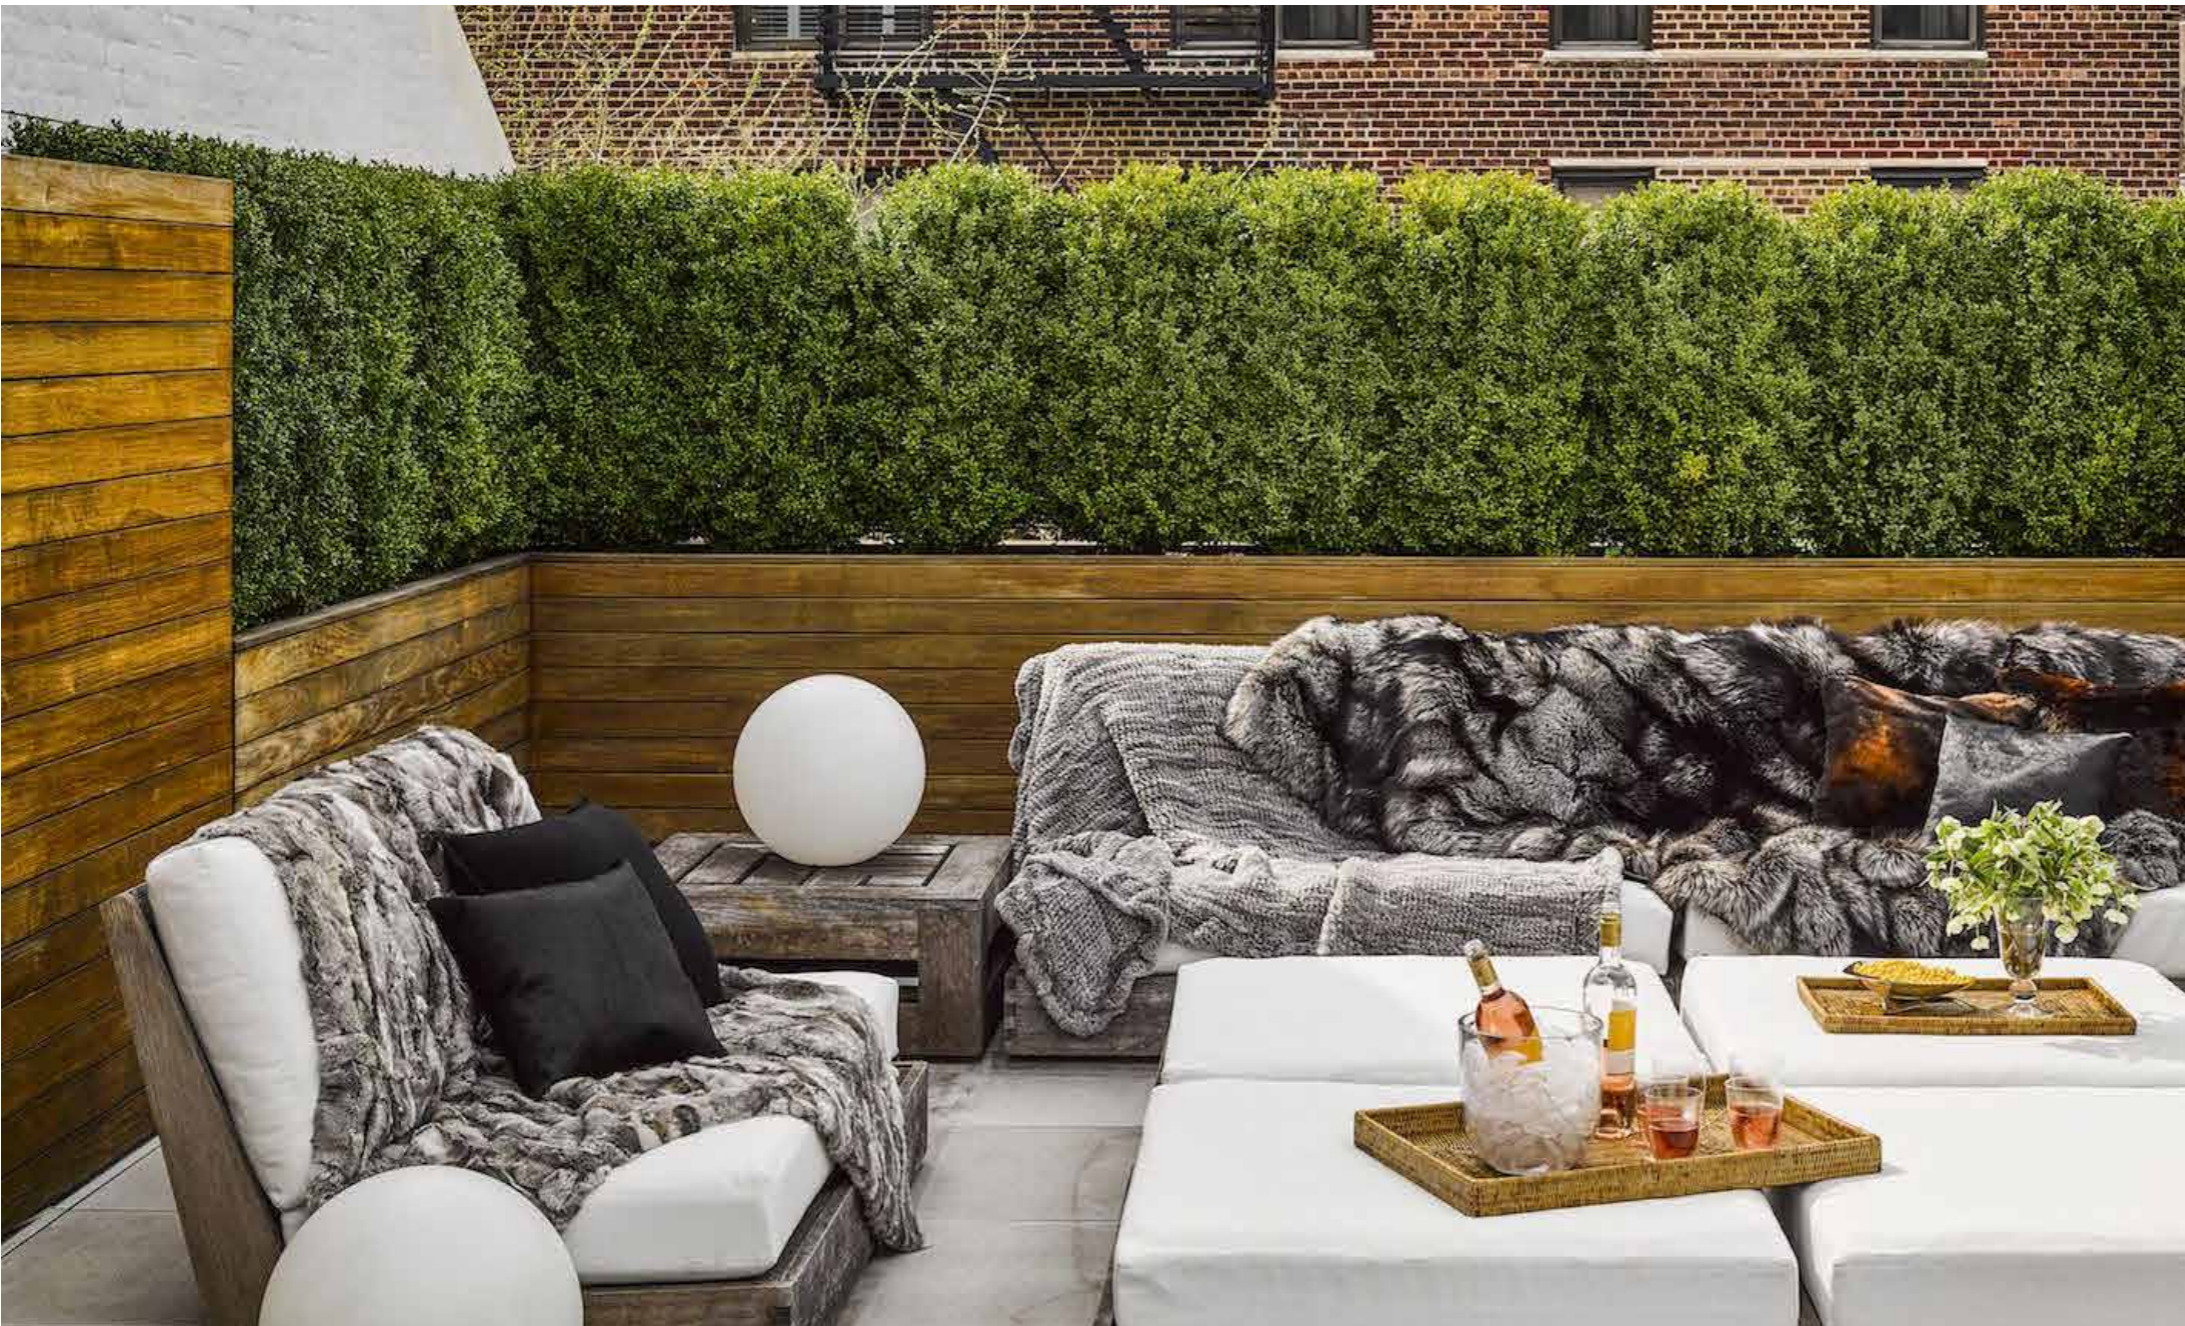

At this classic Hollywood home, patterned chaise lounges in a Pindler & Pindler fabric, pillows in a Janus et Cie fabric, Moroccan lanterns, and antique English wicker chairs give a small space lots of texture.

A GLAMOROUS LOUNGE DECK

The stucco-walled patio of furniture designer Kelly Behun's Southampton, New York, beach house was designed by the architecture firm Sawyer Berson. A low teak table and chairs by Bonetti Kozerski Studio set off a wall adorned with staghorn ferns and baskets made in Zambia. The floor is limestone, and the rug is from Morocco.

A STUCCO-WALLED RETREAT

METROPOLITAN SECLUSION

The exterior space of a West Village townhouse is shielded from neighbors by a boxwood hedge. The cushions on teak furniture by David Sutherland are covered in a Perennials fabric.

A BREEZY BEACH GETAWAY

For his small patio for model Eugenia Silva's Portugal home, Argentine designer Luis Galliussi included a banquette covered in African textiles found in Ibiza, an urn found in a nearby village, floor cushions that are covered in remnants of antique Moroccan kilims and a Moroccan rug.

A RELAXED PATIO

A GLITZY GARDEN

Custom designed marble-and-brass tables and blue sofas, which were reupholstered in a Perennials fabric, add a sophisticated touch to this backyard patio in London.

One of the four—yes, four—back patios of this Uruguayan country home features iron chairs that came from a castle in the south of France and a table by Ghesquière. The hammock makes the most of the limited space, creating the perfect place to nap and read while enjoying the scenery.

A LEAFY VERANDA

On the veranda of this rustic Long Island home, the teak table is by Barlow Tyrie, the wicker chairs are by Restoration Hardware, and the antique wood chairs are from Ruby Beets. The pergola supports a wisteria vine and is surrounded by boxwood topiaries.

INDOOR-OUTDOOR LA LIVING

A dog lounges on the porch of a bucolic retreat in the middle of Los Angeles, designed by Jeffrey Alan Marks. The sleek home brings country pleasures to a whole new level of sophistication.

ALL ORGANIC MATERIALS

The Buenos Aires-based architecture firm Mazinghi-Sanchez designed a weekend home in Argentina with a large covered porch and simple wood furnishings. A rustic awning of eucalyptus logs shelters the Brazilian lapacho-wood floor.

A PEACEFUL OUTDOOR OASIS

Rows of carved pillars are original to the veranda of interior architect Gunther Maria Norrenberg's 17th-century terraced house in Udaipur, India. The antique silver peacock chair and bronze sigdi, a type of stove, were local finds; an 18th-century bronze statuette of Krishna from Rajasthan sits on a black iron table.

Artfully Designed Rooms

WITH

An easy way to make a statement.

In a room design, a photograph can act as a portal, bringing the truth and glamour of another person, place, or time into the present moment. The following spaces by Dering Hall designers and architects showcase large photographs, in both black-and-white and opulent colors, that help remake the boundaries of our interior environments.

A SPLASH OF PURPLE

Architect Bill Ryall and his partner, professor and museum curator Barry Bergdoll, were inspired by Le Corbusier when designing their home on New York's Long Island. The spacious screened porch, which has sweeping views of Gardiners Bay, includes a 1950s butterfly chair and a table made from plywood planks with industrial folding legs.

LOOKING OUT ON THE LAND

In this bedroom, Dane Austin Design added a landscape photograph to enhance the natural aesthetic of a mid-century dresser lined with linen.

BRING ON THE BLUE

A photo by David Drebin lets a burst of blue enter this design by J. Fisher Interiors.

GOOD AS GOLD

An oversized photograph complements a contemporary sideboard in this vignette from Holly A. Kopman Interior Design.

FLAWLESS NEUTRALS

Graphic prints and creative photographs energize a neutral-hued design from Peter Sandel Design, LLC.

STILL SURFACES

For a relaxed family room design, BOWERBIRD hung a landscape photograph to help create a calming environment.

HIGH CONTRAST

A collection of Argentinian photographs offsets the textured walls in this space by James Duncan, Inc.

PAIRED WITH PANELS

Vintage photographs give a spark of emotion to a contemporary, walnut-paneled room from Gonzalez-Abreu | Alas Architects (GAA).

COME SAIL AWAY

A coastal hallway by Design No. Five finds nautical inspiration in sailboat photography.

LOCATION MATTERS

Photographs of Marfa, Texas, pair flawlessly with a 1960s Italian daybed in this design from Magdalena Keck Interior Design.

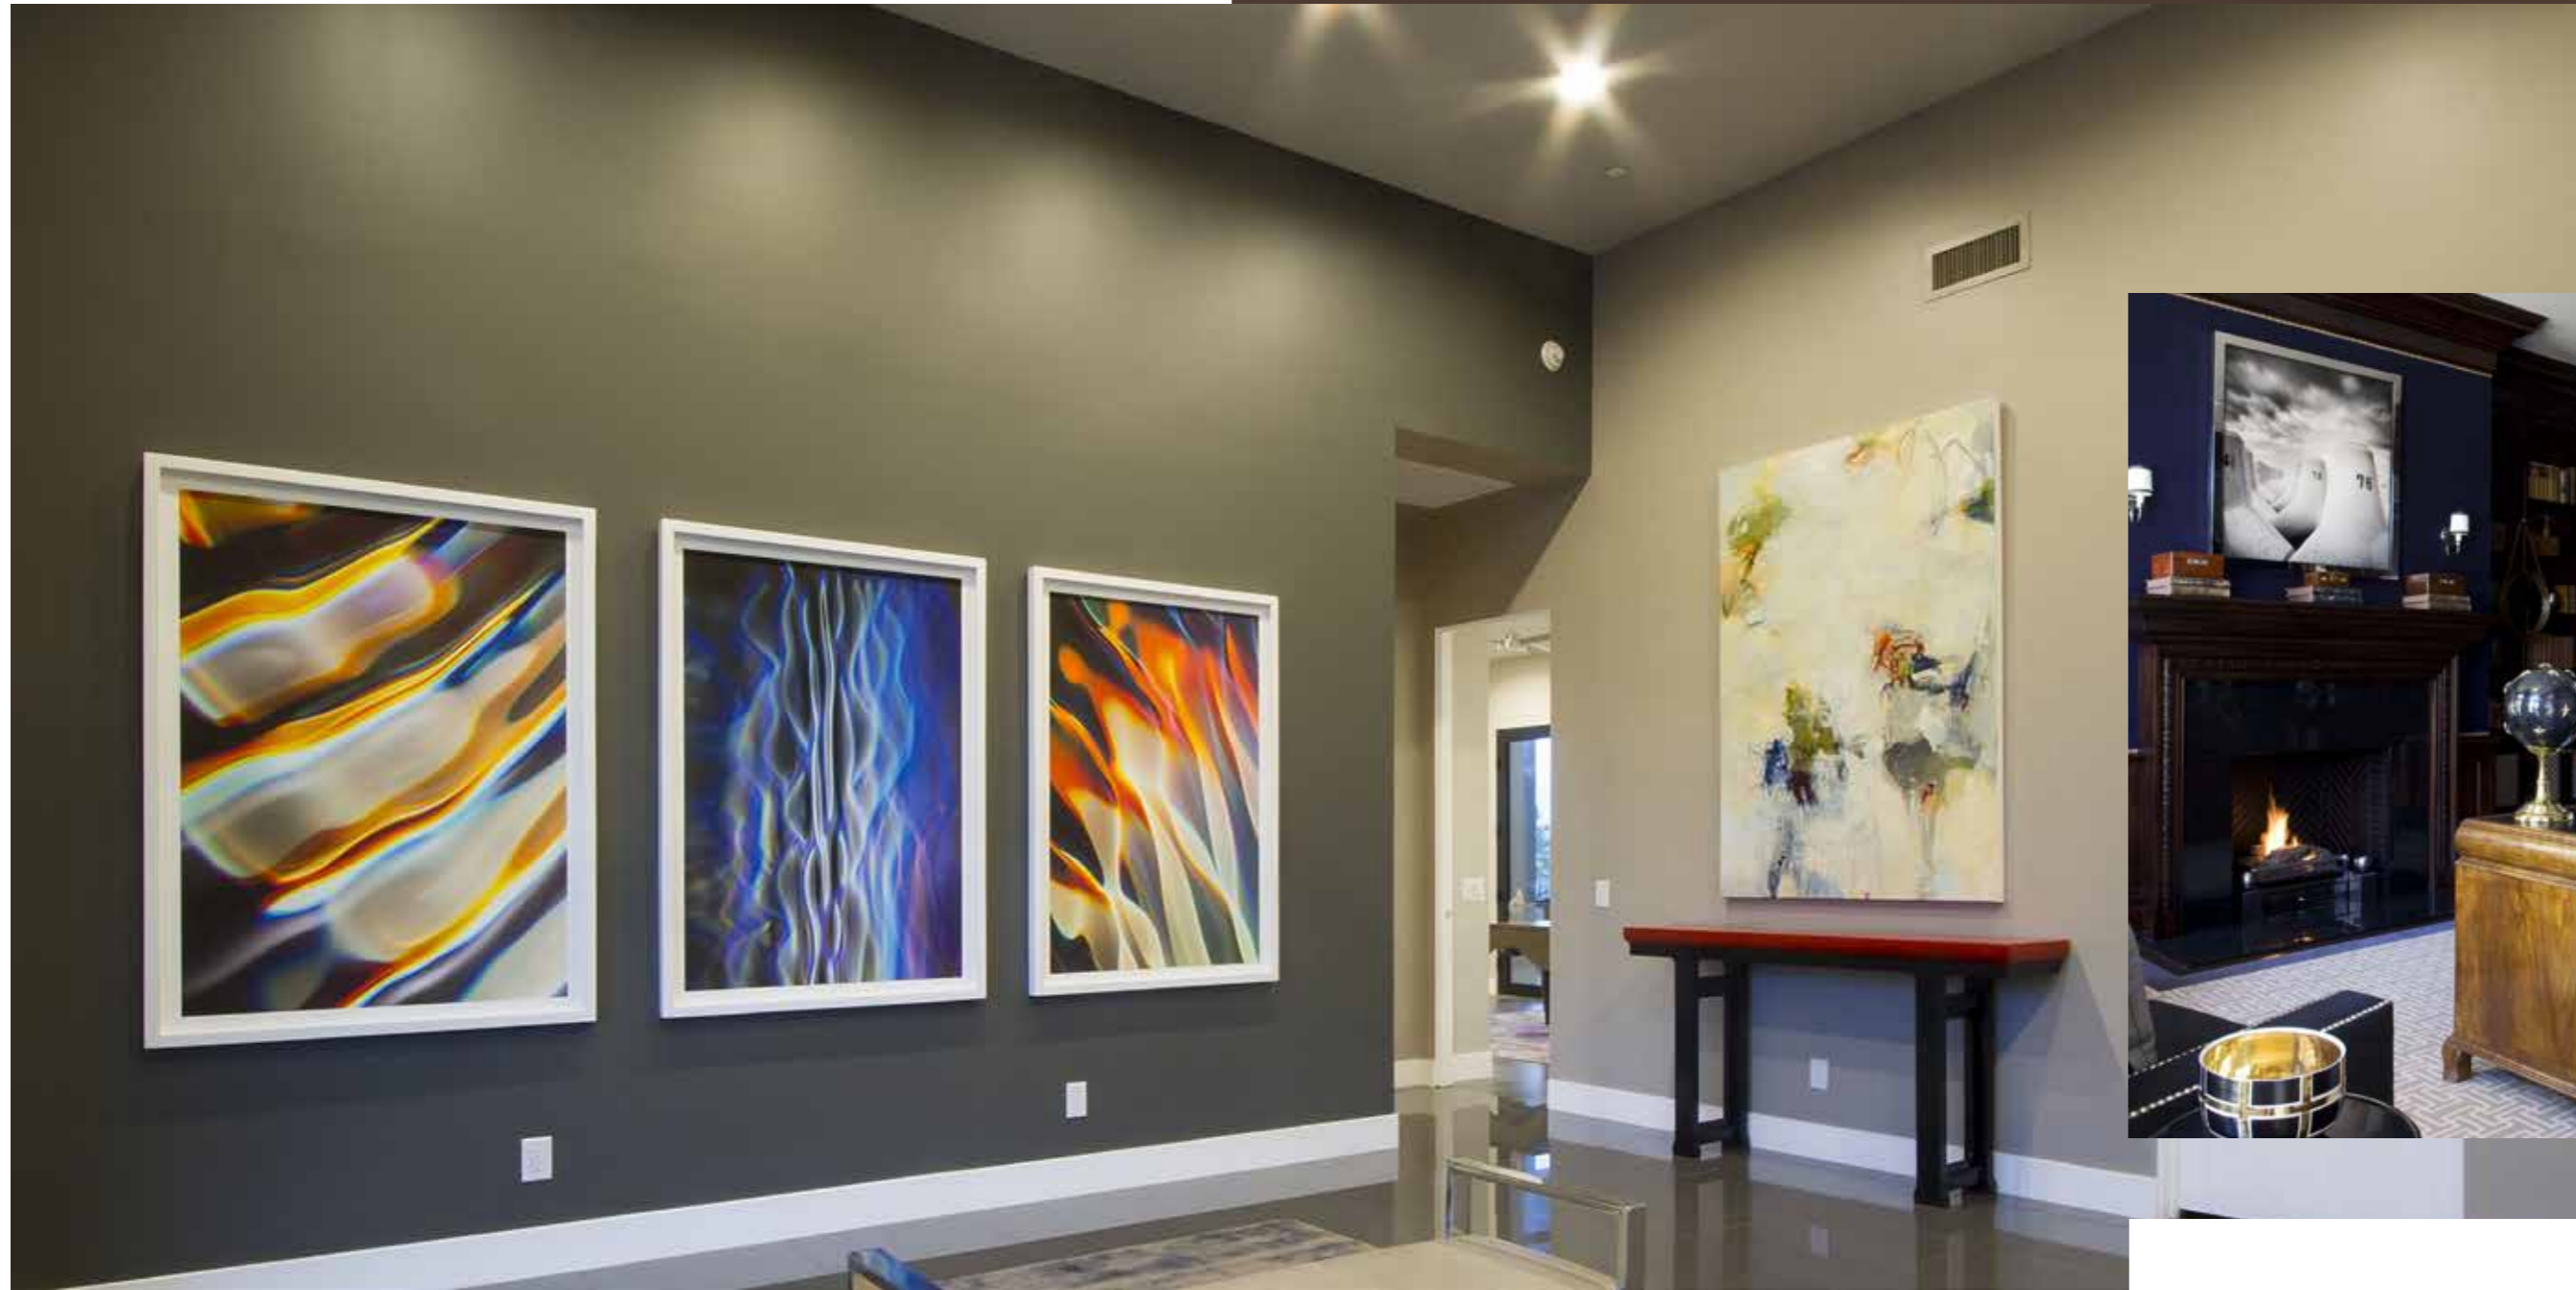

HIGH NOTE

Large-scale photographs in black frames bring clean, bold lines to this vignette from Crowell + Company Interiors.

LARGER THAN LIFE

A photograph from Isaac Julien expands the size of this office by Dunagan Diverio Design Group.

WORK FROM HOME

A navy home office by S.B. Long Interiors benefits from sleek black-and-white photography.

GALLERY GOALS

Shades of gray allow bright artworks to take center stage in this gallery space from Sesshu Design Associates.

ROOFTOPS AND PATIOS MADE FOR SUMMER ENTERTAINING

Al fresco all day.

LAVISH PICNIC STYLE

A Gold Coast private rooftop deck conjures modern picnic vibes, with a stone-and-wood dining table that's backed by sprawling city views.

A MID-CENTURY MODERN COOL

A covered terrace in San Francisco takes inspiration from the iconic style, with mid-century modern chairs and a summery, patterned rug.

SEASIDE DINING

On this Miami rooftop terrace, bar stools are arranged for dinner with a view.

INSPIRED BY THE TROPICS

Ocean blue floors are paired with palm leaf pillows, blending seamlessly and elegantly into the verdant tropical backdrop.

MOOD-SETTING STRING LIGHTS

For the transition from day to night, simple string lights keep the party going, while creating a cozy ambience.

LUSH WITH PLANTS

Deck out your terrace with opulent greenery like flowers and bushes to create a relaxing setting with an urban view. Plus, a spacious couch and built-in fire pit leaves plenty of room for everyone to enjoy.

FULLY-LOADED AMENITIES

Soup up your roof deck with a striking stainless steel BBQ and luxurious plunge pool for epic summer parties.

WITH A GRASS LAWN

Buy a small plot of grass for your roof to lounge and play games, for your own personal park.

A variety of seating is always a plus to keep everyone happy and entertained for day-to-night festivities.

MEDITERRANEAN ELEGANCE

SECTIONED BY GREENERY

Try segmenting your roof with tall bushes to make efficient use out of the space and separate the dining area from the lounge seating.

DOWNTOWN VIEW

A low-set rooftop with natural shade makes for the perfect terrace for day-long hangouts.

LEAN OVERLOOK

A long and lean terrace makes for the perfect space to place a variety of chairs alongside each other to gaze at the sweeping view.

DESERT SERENE

As you can see, designer Daniella Villamil is all about channeling the unique beauty of the given geography through her use of organic fabrics and decor.

MOUNTAIN ESCAPE

Ensure you have long loungers for those lazy, leisurely days in the sun.

SLEEK AND SWEEPING

Go chic and modern with all-white or neutral seating for a clean minimalistic style.

Designmanual

ettaalle.no

Boligene blir lyse og moderne med store vindusflater. Her kan du velge mellom ett til fem roms leiligheter med areal fra 31 til 158 m². Leilighetene er utarbeidet svært arealeffektive, som gjør at du får mest mulig ut av hver kvadratmeter. Det vil være balkong eller markterasse på samtlige leiligheter, hvorav noen vil få innglasset balkong som kan åpnes om det skulle bli for varmt på sommeren. Under alle fire byggene er det avsatt underjordisk parkeringskjeller med felles nedkjøring, og heis opp i etasjene. Prosjektet vil også inneholde tre utleieleiligheter som beboerne står fritt til å disponere seg imellom.
